

NORTHWESTERN BUS NUTS

August 10, 2023

Words from Nut One Al Roeske

And then there was one. What promised to be a fun-filled weekend for 10 coaches at the Wildhorse Casino RV Park in Pendleton, Oregon slowly deteriorated as, one-by-one, registrations had to be cancelled. Covid virus, unexpected plumbing problems, last minute mechanical failures, A/C not operational and a prolonged heat wave all took their toll. In the end only one coach, Pat and Pam Temple, actually made it to the Rally. Pat reported that despite the 109 degree temperature they were able to stay comfortable after converting their A/C systems to 134a refrigerant. Good job Pat and Pam!

Unless they happen to have a site available it's too late to register for the Westfir Rally in August. However, there are still sites available for the September rally in Newport. See the signup sheet in this newsletter and remember, DO NOT CALL THE RV PARK. Fill out the form and send it, along with your check, To me. You will be assigned a space in the order your registration was received. Unused sites will be returned to the park sometime during the week of 4 September. Please sign up early so the hosts can plan accordingly.

The rally in Prosser, Washington is scheduled for the week of the Wine Festival "CRUSH" October 12-14. This has been a very popular rally in the past. The Wine Country RV park is always sold out and they have already contacted me asking for some of our 18 reserved sites to be returned. Estimated cost is $175-$200 per coach. The signup sheet will be out later this month, but please help me estimate the number of attendees. If you think there is at least a 50/50 chance that you will attend, please take a moment right now and call/text me (541)954-0676 or email me candle100@comcast.net with your NAME, YES, PROSSER. No obligation if stuff happens, I just need an estimate for planning purposes. Thanks!!!
